

DUBBO PROJECT COMMUNITY CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE

DECLARATION OF PECUNIARY & NON-PECUNIARY INTERESTS

All members of the Community Consultative Committee must sign a declaration of pecuniary and non-pecuniary interests before they join the Committee and keep this declaration up to date while they are members on the Committee.

This declaration is designed to protect the integrity of the Committee and the reputation of its members.

Examples of pecuniary interest may include but not be limited to:

- holding shares in an entity proposing or carrying out all or part of a State significant project;
- holding a private contract with the proponent;
- holding voluntary acquisition or mitigation rights under the proponent's consent;
- receiving sitting fees of personal expenses from the proponent; and
- if the member represents a stakeholder group, if the stakeholder group has received funding or grants from the proponent.

A pecuniary interest is an interest a person has in a matter because of a reasonable likelihood or expectation of appreciable financial gain or loss to the person. Money does not have to change hands for there to be a pecuniary interest.

A non-pecuniary interest is a private or personal interest a person has that does not amount to a pecuniary interest but that may arise from family or personal relationships, or involvement in community, social or other cultural groups that may include an interest of a financial nature.

A. No pecuniary or non-pecuniary interest to declare

As a member of the Dubbo Project Community Consultative Committee, I declare that I have no pecuniary or non-pecuniary interest to prevent me from carrying out my role on the Dubbo Project Community Consultative Committee impartially and in the best interests of the local and broader community.

Should this change, I agree to update this declaration and advise the Committee accordingly.
